ARTHUR M. WIRTZ

WITH THE Black Hawks starting their Fiftieth year in the National Hockey League, stability and continuity has become a trademark of one of Chicago's most important sports franchises.

This stability is accented by its top level management starting with Arthur M. Wirtz, Chairman, who has been associated with the National Hockey League almost from its infancy.

A member of Hockey's Hall of Fame, Mr. Wirtz has been instrumental in giving the league and hockey the stability needed to make it an international sport.

SINCE HE and his associates acquired the Black Hawks the team has developed a reputation of consistent winning seasons.

Also a continuous effort to improve facilities at the Chicago Stadium for the fans has been in affect with millions poured into things like new wash rooms, expanded and lighted parking lots, new cushioned seats on the mezzanine and main floor, and the largest and most efficient air conditioning system in the National Hockey League which even in winter is used to recycle the air every three minutes.

BingWheeling on Archive.org

MR. WIRTZ was also instrumental in obtaining the best television programming for the fans. Again this season all road games will be televised back to Chicago for the 11th straight year. The new contract is with WFLD-TV. All home games are broadcast on WMAQ radio (670). The Black Hawks are the only team in the NHL with all 40 road games on TV.

Most important, all the comforts provided the fans, both in the Stadium itself and in the parking areas were privately financed and there has been no expense for the city or its tax payers.

WILLIAM W. WIRTZ continues to serve since 1967 as president of the Black Hawks and as its chief operating officer. He is in constant touch with all phases of the organization on a day to day basis and also serves as the Black Hawks' member of the National League Board of Governors.

In fact Bill is now serving in his second term as chairman of the NHL Board of Governors. He served in that capacity in 1971 and 1972 and after a two year period Bill Wirtz was again elected as Chairman.

SINCE 1967 when Bill became president of the Black Hawks, the team has won five division championships. Much of his time is devoted to day to day operations working closely with both General Manager Tommy Ivan and Coach Billy Reay.

He has been involved deeply in developing hockey and NHL in international competition, including the series with Russians several years ago and a current plan to set up a series with the Soviet Union.

MICHAEL WIRTZ is a vice president of the Black Hawks and like his brother has grown up with the sport and the team.

Arthur Morse is general counsel for the Chicago Black Hawks and also serves as alternate governor of the National Hockey League.

Arthur has long been associated with sports and was responsible for the development of the college double header basketball games.

MICHAEL WIRTZ

ARTHUR MORSE

THOMAS N. IVAN

GENERAL MANAGER

Born: Toronto: Ont.
Jan. 31, 1911

FEW THRILLS in hockey have passed Tommy Ivan by. He has coached six NHL champions, three Stanley Cup teams, seven All-Star games in which he never lost. While with the Hawks he has been general manager of a Stanley Cup champion and five division champions during his 21 years. Last year he was installed into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Tommy has been responsible for many of the rules changes that have developed over the years because of his aggressiveness while coaching. For instance he was the first to use five defensemen on face offs making it necessary to strengthen the face off interference rules.

HE ALSO taught Glenn Hall how to push the goal net out of its moorings when things got tough, making it necessary to assess goalies a penalty for such things.

But his main accomplishments came after he joined the Black Hawks in 1954 and gradually strengthened the entire organization from the six men on the ice through the farm system until the Black Hawks became one of the perennial contenders of the NHL.

IN THE PAST 18 years, the Black Hawks have finished in the Playoffs all but once.

One of his proudest pioneering efforts has been his work in college hockey. Among his discoveries in the college ranks are Bill Hay, Keith Magnuson, John Marks and Cliff Koroll.

A dapper dresser and a devotee of good food, Ivan has always been a low key operator, staying in the background but there is never any doubt about who gets things done.

He and his wife, Dorothy live in Lake Forest.

WILLIAM T. REAY

COACH
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Aug. 21, 1918

STARTING HIS 13th season with the Black Hawks as coach, Billy Reay has won 500 games in the NHL, 474 of them as the Hawk mentor. That represents 36 percent of all the games (1200) that the team has won in its 49 years in the NHL.

Only Dick Irvin has won more games as an NHL coach. The final game last season, giving Billy 500 put him in a tie with his former teammate at Montreal, Toe Blake.

BILL PLAYED center for the Canadiens for eight seasons, and once scored four goals in a Playoff game against the Boston Bruins.

As a coach, his tenure with the Hawks is almost equal to the rest of the coaches in the NHL.

Bill brings a studious approach to hockey but can hold his own in a controversy if necessary.

HE IS KNOWN for his quiet way of dealing individually with his players and never berates them in the press or before the public. But lo and behold a player who bends a Reay rule, though we will never know what happens behind the dressing room door.

Bill has a good relationship with the press, although he has been known to stick the needle in from time to time just to keep everyone on his toes. Many times Bill uses a chance to start a controversy with a news man merely to take the pressure off his own men. He has never been afraid to take the brunt of the criticism himself if he thinks it will help his team.

HE AND HIS WIFE Clare live on the near north side. Their son, Billy, Jr., is finishing work toward a pharmacy degree at the U. of Wisconsin. They also have a daughter who lives in Toronto.

MEET THE TRAINERS

CHARLES (SKIP) THAYER

LOU VARGA

Charles, (Skip) Thayer, 33, is the first hockey trainer in the NHL to be college trained. He took his degree from the University of Maine and his Masters from Indiana University. After serving as trainer for all sports at Colby College in Waterville, Me., he joined the Black Hawks four years ago.

Skip has three sons. Scott 11, Stephan 7 and Gregory 4.

Lou Varga served as the trainer for the Black Hawks' Central League entry for five years in St. Louis and Dallas. He and Skip Thayer combine their talents as trainers for the Black Hawks and Lou also handles the equipment. He also will be starting his fifth season with the parent Black Hawks. He and his wife Helen recently bought a house in the suburbs. They now have a son, John Michael, who was born Jan. 31, 1974.

WILLIAM WHITE

DEFENSE

Shoots right 6'1" 195 lbs.

Born: Toronto, Ont.

August 26, 1939

1974-75 — 4-23-27 in 51 games.

0-3-3 in playoffs.

Injuries kept him out of a lot of games last year, but was still important cog in Hawk defense. Perennial All-Star. Good offensively, although noted mainly for ability to slow down opponents. Wife and 3 daughters live in Park Ridge during season.

HAWK HISTORY

The Black Hawks can look back on 49 years of life on a roller-coaster as they begin their Golden Anniversary season in the National Hockey League.

High points include three Stanley Cups (1934, 1938 and 1961), participation in the seventh game of the finals in two other post-season playoff series and five league or division championships.

Low points are a bit easier to find and, for the most part, were endured by Hawks and fans alike from 1939 until the late 1950s when the rebuilding program begun by Arthur Wirtz and the late Jim Norris after they took over ownership in the early 50s started to take effect.

Between the 1938-39 season and the 1958-59 campaign, Hawk teams joined the chase for Lord Stanley's old rose bowl only four times. Three of those quests were launched from the final playoffs position and only once — in 1945-46 — were they able to make it all the way up to third.

PLAYOFFS 16 OF 17 YEARS

Since 1958, only the Hawks of 1968-69 have had to disband at the end of regular season play. So chagrined was everyone involved with the sixth place finish that season that effective remedial action was taken immediately.

Tony Esposito was acquired from Montreal to play goal, Keith Magnuson was imported directly from the campus of Denver University and other less obvious adjustments were made in both strategy and tactics.

The result was that the 1969-70 Hawks rebounded to finish first in their final season as members of the old Eastern Division, outdoing such traditional powers as Montreal, Boston and Toronto.

Hawk fans, then, can be heartened by the fact that team brass was almost as dismayed by last year's dip to third in the Conn Smythe division as they were after the1968-69 debacle.

Stability has been the biggest single factor in the Hawks success. Norris and Wirtz brought Tommy Ivan from Detroit as Manager in 1954 and, 21 years later, he's still in charge, a fact which makes him the NHL's senior executive.

474 WINS HERE

Similarly, Billy Reay replaced Rudy Pilous 13 years ago and has been on the job far longer than any other pilot in the league. Last year he became only the third coach in history to win 500 games. Included in that figure are 26 victories gained while Reay served a brief hitch with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Actually, the Hawks have had only two owners since they entered the league in 1926. But while founder Frederic McLaughlin retained ownership and provided stability from the top, he never was able to keep a coach for more than a season or two, or, on a couple of occasions, for more than a month or two.

In fact, until Pilous took over in 1957 for a five-year stretch, the Hawks had been directed by no fewer than 20 coaches, not including repeaters, such as Dick Irvin, who worked as coach for a season and a half in the early 1930s, then returned for the 1955-56 campaign just before his death.

The bumper year was 1932-33, when the best efforts of Godfrey Matheson, Emil Iverson and Tommy Gorman were required to guide the team thru a 48-game season that produced 16 victories, 20 defeats, 12 ties and a fourth place finish out of the playoffs.

HE WROTE WELL

Iverson, incidentally, had been the trainer until McLaughlin tabbed him to replace Matheson, a former high school coach whose eloquent letter of application had been the only basis for his employment.

Goalie Mike Karakas, during war years he used catcher's mits and mended his goalie gloves even using other spare parts.

Although the quality of the early teams was uneven, Hawk fans were able to watch several outstanding players. All members of the famous "Pony Line" of the early 1940s — Doug and Max Bentley and Billy Mosienko — are in the Hall of Fame. So is Chuck Gardiner, the brilliant goalie of the early 1930s. All-Star defenseman Bill Gadsby, who began his NHL career with the Hawks, also has been enshrined.

But the stars began to arrive in quantity early in the Ivan regime. First came goalie Glenn Hall, who established a virtually unbeatable record by playing in 552 consecutive games, compiled a total of 51 shutouts and otherwise conducted himself so impressively that last summer he was inducted into the Hall of Fame along with a teammate on the 1961 Cup team, defenseman Pierre Pilote.

Pilote arrived in Chicago shortly after Hall and stayed around long enough to earn first team All-Star honors five times and be awarded the James Norris Trophy as the league's top defenseman three times.

TRIPLE WINNER

At about the same time Stan Mikita arrived to score 8 goals and 18 assists as an 18-year-old graduate of St. Catharine's Juniors, then move on to become the first player in NHL history to score a "triple crown" by winning the scoring title, the Most Valuable Player Award and the Lady Byng trophy for combining a high quality of play with gentlemanly conduct in the same season. Stan was so pleased with having accomplished the feat in 1966-67, that he repeated the next year. Stan now leads all Hawks with 1,131 games and 1,240 points to go with his 467 goals.

RINGTHEBELL on Archive.org

Harold Mush March, one of the most popular Hawks.

And playing a dominant role in the resurgence was the overpowering presence of Bobby Hull, who between 1957-58 and 1971-72 topped the 50-goal mark five times while knocking in a career total of 604.

There were many others who contributed to high points in the Hawks' first 49 years . . . the Red Hays, Moose Vaskos, Mush Marches, Johnny Gottseligs, Murry Balfours, Kenny Wharrams, Al Arbours, Tod Sloans, Doug Mohns, Reggie Flemings and Eric Nesterenkos.

And, perhaps, in another 50 years, historians will be looking back wonderingly at the exploits of the Tony Espositos, Bill Whites, Phil Russells, Dennis Hulls, Pit Martins, Darcy Rotas, Keith Magnusons, Ivan Boldirevs, and Dick Redmonds.

BLACK HAWK MILESTONES

November 17, 1926: Black Hawks play first game in the NHL, at the Coliseum, beat Toronto 4-1.

December 16, 1929: Play first game in the new Chicago Stadium, 14,000 see the Hawks beat Pittsburgh 3-1. Vic Ripley scores first goal ever in the Stadium.

April 10, 1934: Black Hawks win their first Stanley Cup with a 1-0 win over Detroit. 16,500 see Mush March score in the second overtime period.

March 12, 1937: Hawks put a team with 5 American born players on the ice in the starting line-up.

April, 1938: Black Hawks win the Stanley Cup. Beat Toronto 4-1 to take the series 3 games to 1.

May 23, 1952: Bill Mosienko scores 3 goals in 21 seconds as Hawks beat New York Rangers 7-6.

May, 1954: Tommy Ivan takes over as General Manager to begin a tough rebuilding task.

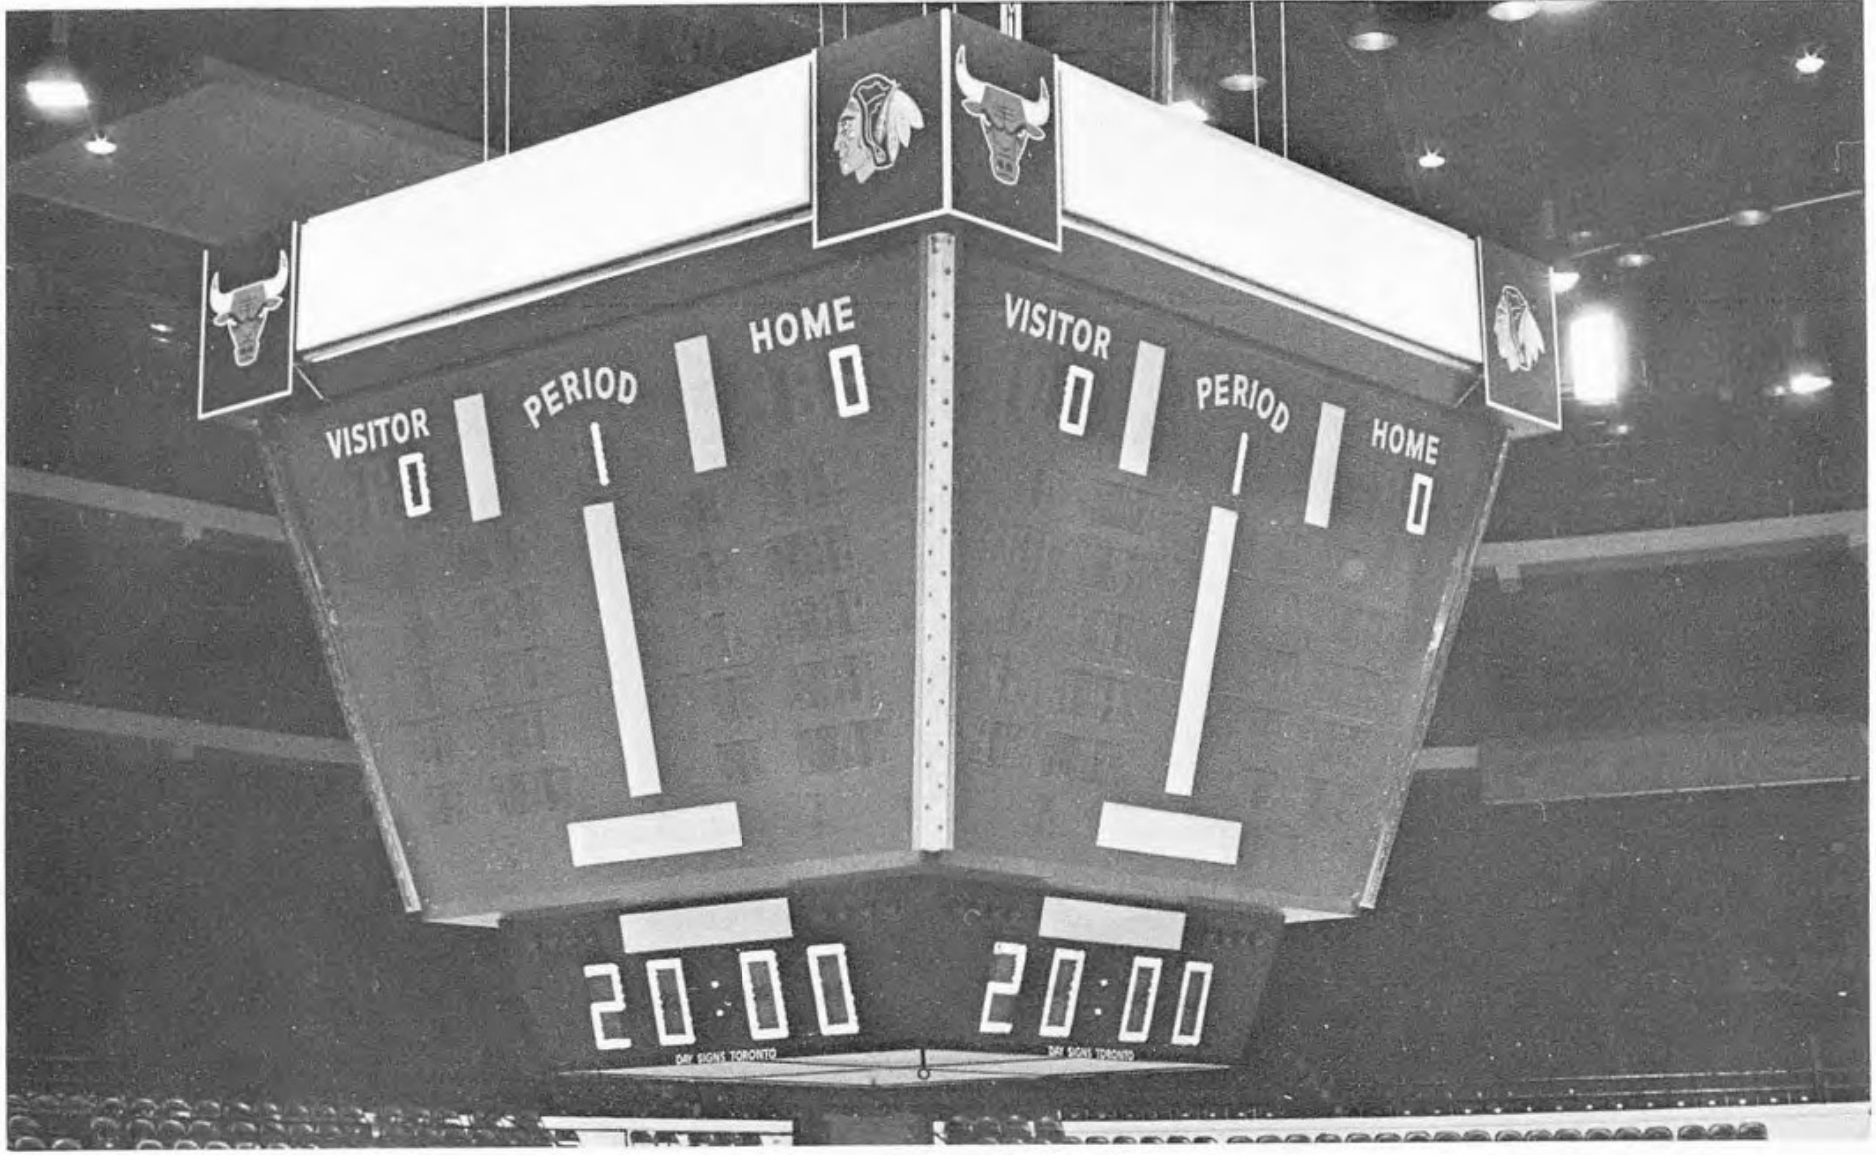
January 17, 1961: Glenn Hall plays in his 500th consecutive game in the nets. He receives many gifts, including a station wagon from the Hawk management.

April 16, 1961: Black Hawks win the Stanley Cup, with a 5-1 win over Detroit.

March 12, 1967: Black Hawks clinch first Prince of Wales trophy with a 5-0 win over Toronto. Billy Reay breaks the famous curse of Muldoon.

April 5, 1970: In a wild 10-2 victory over Montreal, Black Hawks clinch first place in the final game of the year. This victory brought the team from last place in the previous season to first place in the next season.

April 6, 1975: Black Hawks win 1200th game with a 5-0 victory over Minnesota. It's also the 500th win in the NHL for Coach Billy Reay.



Here's the new Scoreboard ready for action.
